Dr. Mary Ann Wiseman elected NDEB President

Ottawa, January 20, 2015 —The National Dental Examining Board of Canada (NDEB) is pleased to announce the election of Dr. Mary Ann Wiseman of New Brunswick as the new President of the Board. Dr. Wiseman was elected for a two-year term at the NDEB's Annual Meeting on October 25, 2014, replacing Dr. William Judson of Prince Edward Island.

"I'm proud to lead an organization that plays such an important role in supporting the health of Canadians," said Dr. Wiseman. "I'm looking forward to working with Board Members, the Executive Director & Registrar, and senior management to advance its mandate."

"The NDEB is in a period of rapid growth and change, and we are delighted to have Dr. Wiseman as our new President" added Dr. Jack Gerrow, Executive Director & Registrar of the NDEB. "She is a highly accomplished dental professional, a respected leader, and a strong role model who fully supports the NDEB's commitment to integrity, transparency, and innovation."

Dr. Wiseman has been involved for many years in local, provincial, and national dental organizations. She has served as President of both the Moncton and New Brunswick Dental Societies. She is also a Fellow of the Academy of General Dentistry. Dr. Wiseman was born in Saint John, NB and raised in Sydney, NS. She holds a B.Sc. in Chemistry from Cape Breton University in Sydney and a DDS from Dalhousie University in Halifax. A practicing dentist in Moncton, NB, she is married to Dr. Michael Brown and has three grown children.

About the NDEB:

Created in 1952 by an Act of Parliament, the NDEB establishes and maintains national standards for the practice of dentistry in Canada through an internationally-recognized system of examinations. The NDEB is a non-governmental, not-for profit organization supported by examination fees.
