

Canadian Academy of Endodontics

Elects New President

The Canadian Academy of Endodontics held its 50th Annual General Meeting in Toronto, Ontario from the 22nd to the 25th of October, 2014. A new slate of officers were elected and Dr. Tom Iwanowski was installed as President.

Dr. Iwanowski graduated with his D.D.S. from McGill University in 1987 and practiced general dentistry in Ottawa from 1987 until 1994. He then attended the University of Toronto where he received his Specialty Certification in Endodontics in 1996.

Since then, he has been engaged in private practice limited to endodontics in Gatineau, Quebec.

Dr. Tom Iwanowski

Dr. Iwanowski has been an active member of the CAE since 1994 and has served as a member of its Standards of Practice Committee and as a member of the CAE Executive for the past three years. He is also a member of the Quebec Society of Endodontists, Société Dentaire de l'Outaouais, Quebec order of dentists, Canadian Dental Association, the American Association of Endodontists, and is a Past President and founding member of the University of Toronto Endodontics Alumni and Friends.

Born and raised in the Hochelaga Maisonneuve quartier of Montreal Tom now lives in Chelsea Quebec with his wife and two daughters. Tom is an avid cross country skier, maple syrup producer, pizza oven designer and builder, and outdoor enthusiast.
